

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Capital Budgeting is Easier with Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator

Ruston, LA - February 2, 2005 - Wheatworks Software, LLC is pleased to announce the release of Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator v 1.6.00, a Windows®-based financial analysis tool.

Designed for investors and financial professionals, Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator is a capital budgeting calculator which simultaneously evaluates cash flow series for 14 different investment projects against five discount rates for each cash flow series.

Users will appreciate the calculator's enhanced design, quick cash flow entry, "Quick Start" help which allows them to quickly begin performing discounted cash flow analysis and the ease with which different cash flow scenarios may be compared.

For each of 14 cash flow series, Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator performs the following calculations: Initial Investment, Smallest Cash Flow, Largest Cash Flow, Cash Flow Range, Average Cash Flow, Number of Cash Flows, Undiscounted Sum of Cash Flows, Internal Rate of Return (IRR), and Undiscounted Payback Period

For five, user-defined, discount rates associated with each of the 14 cash flow series, Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator provides the following results for each cash flow series: Net Present Value (NPV), Net Future Value (NFV), Net Uniform Series (NUS), Modified Internal Rate of Return (MIRR), Present Worth Cost, Present Worth Revenue, Benefit/Cost Ratio, and Present Value Ratio

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator is designed for Windows® 95, 98, ME, NT4, 2000, XP Home and XP Professional. New features include a much improved user interface, quicker cash flow entry, each cash flow series can include up to 3600 individual cash flows, larger screen layout and larger font size for ease of viewing, a glossary of cash flow analysis terms, "Quick Start" help for first time users, improved graphics and faster navigation among the 14 cash flow analysis calculators, a date calculator, a decimal/fraction interest rate conversion chart, provides automatic hints, and an integrated Upgrade Center for easy, online updates..

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Calculator may be purchased for $69.95 online at <http://www.DiscountedCashFlowAnalysis.com>. This release is a free upgrade for current registered users.
